

290 E King Ave Kingsland, GA

The Historic Gross House

OFFERING MEMORANDUM

KINGSLAND, GEORGIA

A compelling commercial conversion opportunity: acquire a well-preserved 1912 historic residence in downtown Kingsland with excellent potential for adaptive reuse as professional office space.

Asking Price

$574,900

Building Size

±3,955 SF

Lot Size

0.55-Acre Corner Lot

Year Built

1912 – Historic Character

Executive Summary

290 East King Avenue presents a rare opportunity to acquire a well-preserved historic asset in downtown Kingsland, Georgia – ideally positioned for adaptive reuse as professional or medical office space. Known locally as the Gross House, this 1912 residence sits on a prominent corner lot directly across the street from an existing professional office (Harrison & Fortier, P.C.), demonstrating the proven viability of commercial conversion in this corridor.

Historic Character with Modern Upgrades

Built in 1912 with strong architectural bones. Recent capital improvements include a new roof, updated HVAC system, and fresh exterior paint – providing a solid base for repositioning.

Proven Conversion Precedent

A successful adaptive reuse already exists directly across the street at 239 E King Ave, where a similar historic residence was converted into the offices of Harrison & Fortier, P.C.

Favorable Rezoning Outlook

Currently zoned R-1 within the C-1A Overlay District. Preliminary discussions with the City of Kingsland indicate strong municipal support for rezoning to commercial/professional office use.

As-Is Sale — Motivated Sellers

Offered As-Is, giving buyers the flexibility to complete interior improvements tailored to their specific office or professional use requirements.

Property Description

The Gross House, constructed in 1912, is a well-preserved historic residence located on a prominent corner lot in downtown Kingsland. Offering approximately 3,955 square feet of building area, the property presents an excellent opportunity for adaptive reuse as professional office space.

Architectural Character

- Original hardwood floors throughout
- Hand-carved moldings and trim
- Multiple fireplaces adding warmth and character
- Spacious wrap-around porch
- Classic early 20th-century architecture
- Mature site landscaping with large live oak

Recent Capital Improvements

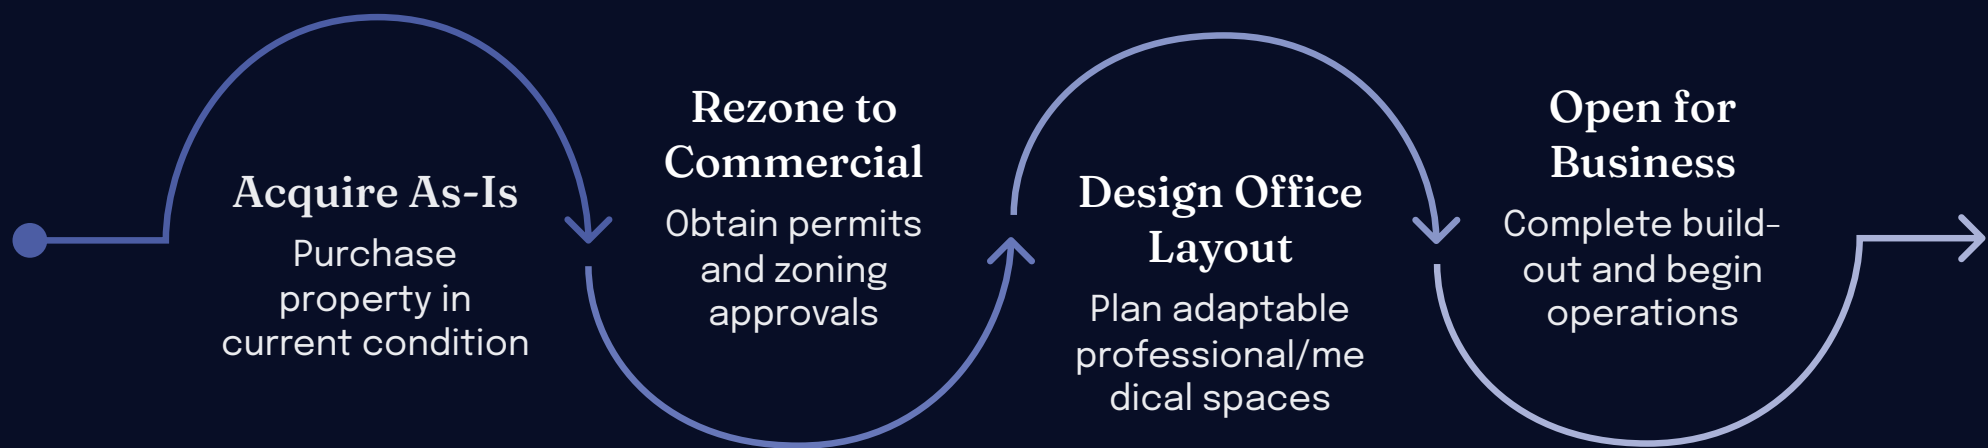

- New roof installed
- Updated HVAC system
- Exterior painting completed

Site Infrastructure

- Large 0.55-acre corner lot
- Detached three-car garage
- Ample on-site parking capacity
- Strong professional curb appeal

Commercial Conversion & Adaptive Reuse Potential

290 East King Avenue is exceptionally well-suited for conversion into professional or medical office space. The building's generous proportions, multiple rooms, and existing infrastructure provide a flexible canvas for a wide range of commercial uses.

The conversion pathway is straightforward – from acquisition through rezoning to interior buildout – supported by favorable municipal leadership and a proven precedent directly across the street.

Private Offices

Multiple existing rooms can be readily reconfigured into private offices for attorneys, physicians, financial advisors, or other professionals.

Reception & Waiting Areas

The generous entry and living spaces translate naturally into welcoming reception and client waiting areas with historic character.

Conference Rooms

Larger rooms are ideal for conference and meeting space, supporting collaborative professional environments.

Zoning & Rezoning Outlook

Current Zoning Status

The property is currently zoned R-1 (Single Family Residential) and lies within the C-1A Overlay District, which encompasses portions of the downtown E King Avenue corridor and supports a mix of residential and compatible commercial/professional uses.

Path to Commercial Zoning

The seller and broker have held preliminary discussions with the City of Kingsland regarding rezoning to a commercial or professional office classification. Based on those discussions, rezoning is expected to be straightforward with favorable municipal support.

- ✔ Preliminary discussions with the City of Kingsland indicate strong support for commercial/professional office zoning at this location.

Buyer Due Diligence

Prospective buyers are encouraged to conduct their own independent due diligence with the City of Kingsland Planning & Zoning Department regarding current zoning, permitted uses, and the rezoning process.

Current

R-1 Single Family Residential

Overlay

C-1A Downtown Overlay District

Target

Commercial / Professional Office

Outlook

Strong Municipal Support Anticipated

Location & Market Overview

290 East King Avenue is strategically located in the heart of downtown Kingsland on a high-visibility corner lot along E King Avenue. The property benefits from excellent access and exposure within Kingsland's historic downtown business district.

1

Downtown Kingsland

High-visibility corner location in the historic downtown business district with strong professional curb appeal.

2

Interstate 95 and US Highway 17 Access

Convenient access to I-95 and US HWY 17 connecting to major employers, retail centers, and residential communities throughout Camden County.

3

St. Marys / Brunswick Market

Part of the greater St. Marys/Kingsland/Brunswick growth market, experiencing steady population and employment expansion.

The property directly across the street at 239 E King Avenue has already been successfully converted from residential to professional office use – demonstrating both market acceptance and the viability of adaptive reuse in this corridor.

Demographics & Trade Area Data

The property is supported by favorable demographics and a solid base of daytime activity within its primary trade area. According to the latest Esri data, the 10-minute drive time trade area surrounding the property reflects a growing, professional market well-suited for office demand.

19,782

Total Population

2025 residents within 10-min drive time, projected to exceed 21,000 by 2030

18,889

Daytime Population

Total daytime population including 8,808 workers who commute into the trade area daily

$74,520

Median HH Income

Median household income within the 10-minute drive time trade area (2025)

792

Total Businesses

Active businesses within the trade area, employing a total of 6,954 workers

White Collar Employment

Approximately 54–56% of the workforce within the 10-minute drive time is classified as white collar employment – a strong indicator of demand for quality professional office space.

Key Industry Sectors

- Health Care & Social Assistance
- Professional / Scientific / Technical Services
- Finance & Insurance
- Educational Services

5-Minute Drive Time (Immediate Area)

$67,033

Median Household
Income

6,096

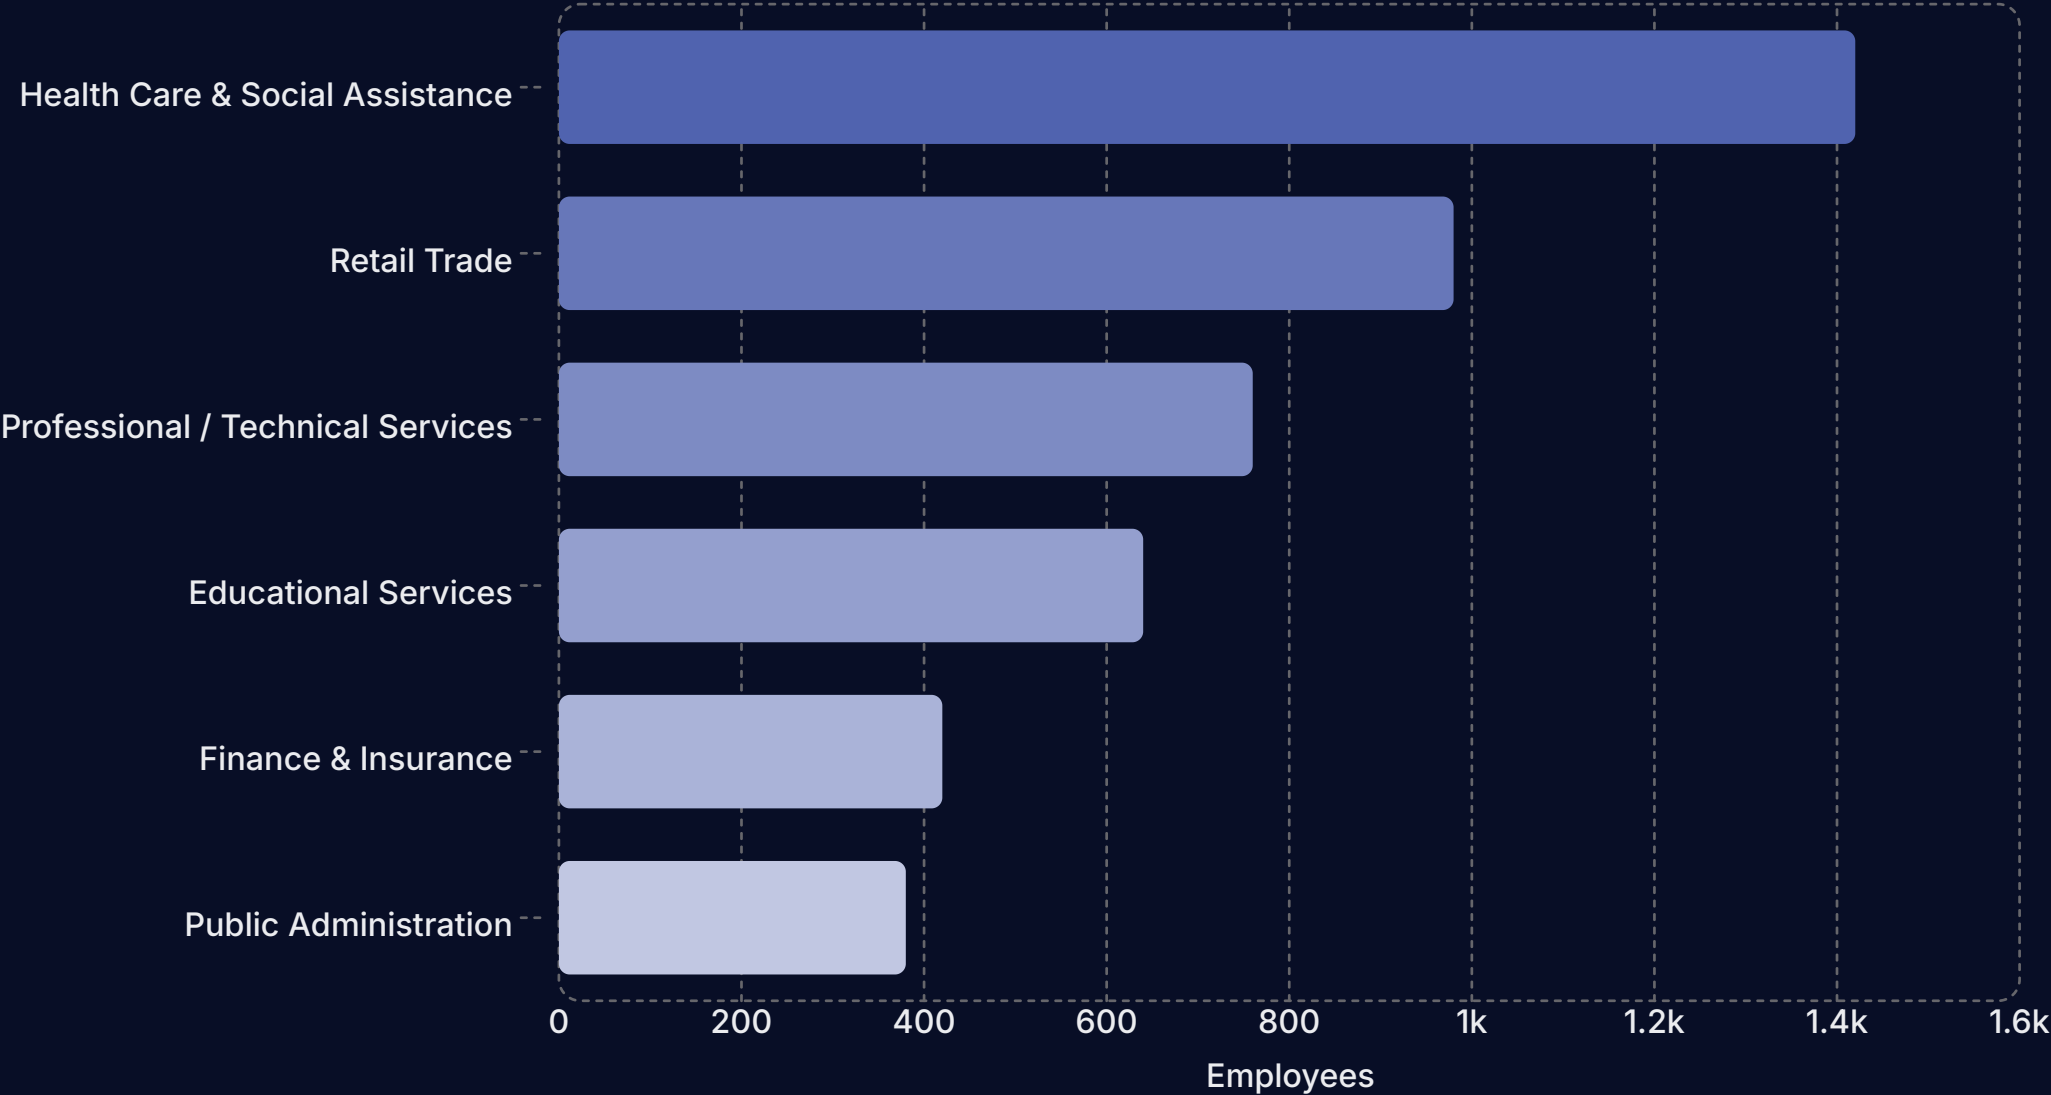

Daytime Population

Strong local support and convenient access for both employees and clients in the immediate surrounding area.

Trade Area Employment Mix

The 10-minute drive time trade area reflects a well-diversified employment base with a meaningful concentration of professional and service-oriented sectors – directly supporting demand for professional office space at 290 East King Avenue.

Industry Sector

Health Care & Social Assistance leads the employment mix, followed by Retail Trade and Professional/Technical Services – all sectors that generate consistent demand for accessible, quality office space in a downtown setting. Total trade area employment stands at approximately 6,954 workers across 792 businesses.

Site Features, Photos & Parking

The property offers strong visual appeal and practical site characteristics that support commercial conversion. The generous lot size and parking capacity, combined with the building's flexible layout, position this property well for professional or medical office conversion.

0.55-Acre Corner Lot

More than double the size of many nearby properties in the downtown corridor – providing exceptional flexibility for parking and site improvements.

12–15 Parking Spaces

Strong on-site parking potential utilizing the eastern and southern portions of the lot, plus a detached three-car garage.

Mature Landscaping

Large live oak and attractive wrap-around porch provide exceptional professional curb appeal suitable for office or medical use.

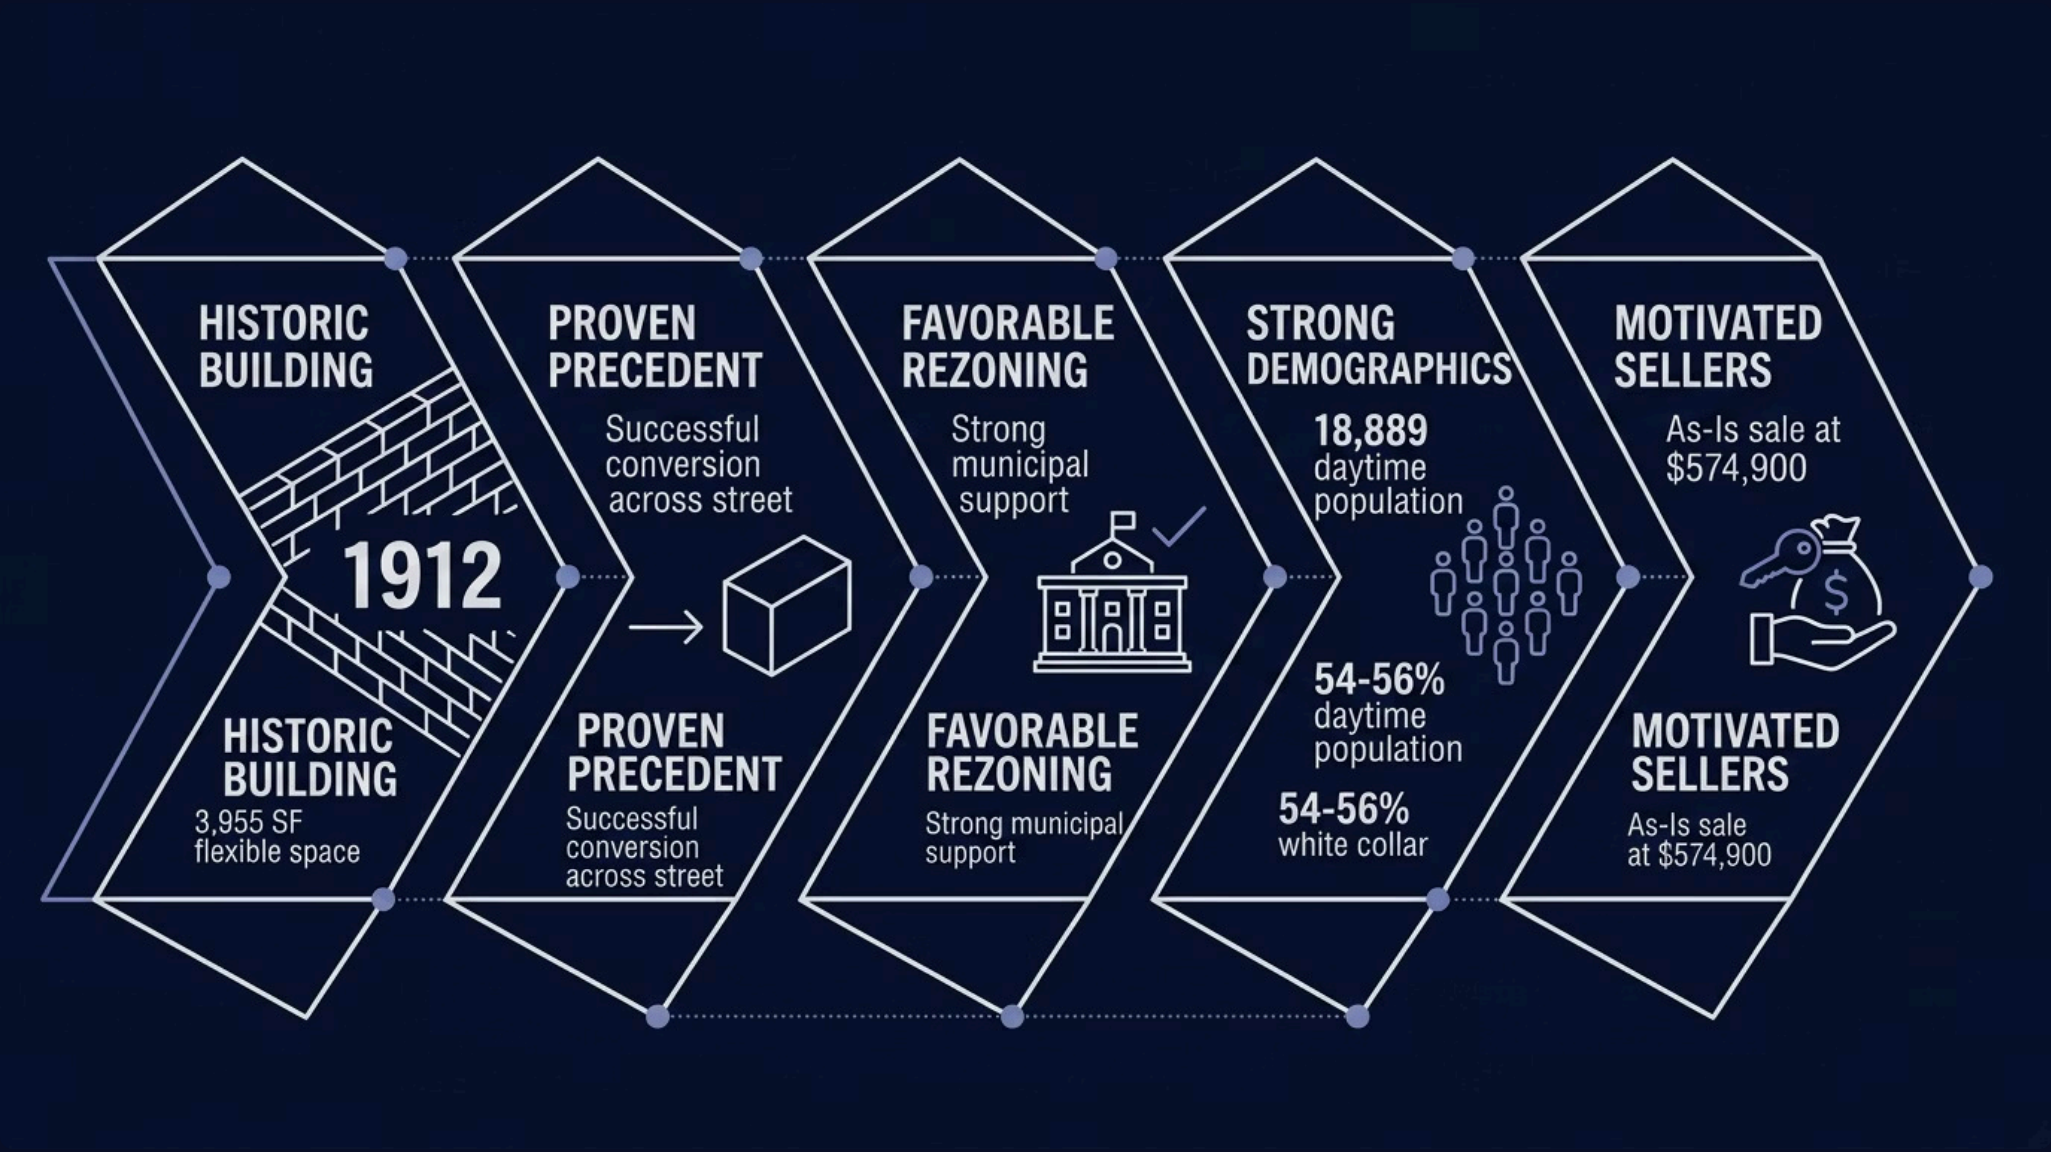

High Visibility

Prominent corner positioning in downtown Kingsland's historic district with strong presence and convenient access from US Highway 17.

- ① High-resolution photographs, drone imagery, and aerial views are available upon request and will be provided to qualified buyers. Existing floor plans are also available – buyers are encouraged to work with their own architect or designer to develop specific layouts tailored to their operational needs.

Investment Summary & Contact

290 East King Avenue presents a compelling opportunity to acquire a well-preserved 1912 historic residence in downtown Kingsland with excellent potential for adaptive reuse as professional office space. The Gross House sits on a prominent 0.55-acre corner lot with strong visibility, access, and a clear path to commercial conversion supported by local municipal leadership.

Why Act Now

- Motivated sellers offering As-Is flexibility
- Rezoning pathway is clear and municipally supported
- Growing Camden County market with rising professional employment
- Existing parking infrastructure already in place
- Proven adaptive reuse precedent directly across the street

❏ Detailed demographic, business, and market reports are available upon request. Qualified buyers and investors are encouraged to contact the listing broker to schedule a private showing.

Contact the Listing Broker

Bob Piljay
Associate Broker – GA and FL
☎ (912) 322-1377
✉ bob@piljay.com

Watson Realty Corp.
6250 Hwy 40 E, Saint Marys, GA
☎ (912) 882-5658

For additional information, detailed reports, or to schedule a private showing, please contact Bob Piljay directly.

⚠ The property is being offered As-Is with no warranties or representations regarding its condition. Current zoning is R-1 (Single Family Residential) within the C-1A Overlay District. Rezoning will be required for most commercial uses. All information is believed to be accurate but is not guaranteed. Prospective buyers are encouraged to verify all information independently with the City of Kingsland Planning & Zoning Department.